Galilee Church news

"Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall see God."

We would like to thank God for showering us with many blessings. Morning worship services at Galilee were very uplifting. Pastor Davis delivered a very strengthening sermon and the senior choir sang beautifully. On that afternoon the Ladies Club of Galilee celebrated their thirty-second anniversary. One of the many highlights of the celebration was the presentation of Flowers to sick and elderly members by President Lucille Martin. The Jordan Harmonettes and Brother Bobby Jones rendered beautiful selections.

At 6 p.m. on Sunday, Pastor Davis, the Senior and Junior Chorus and congregation were special guests of Rev. Donnie Ray and congregation of the Zion Grove Baptist Church in Buckingham.

The Men's Club of Galilee will celebrate its annual day on the third Sunday in May at 3 p.m. We have extended invitations to many area clubs to share. Please support our efforts.

The Youth Choir plans rehearsal this Wednesday at 7 p.m. We have been invited to share in revival services at Mt. Obed Church this coming Monday night at 7:30. We desire our members and friends to go with us.

The Appomattox Assembly meets this coming Friday in the School Annex. We sincerely desire your support and participation.

The Appomattox Branch of the NAACP will convene with the Gravel Hill Church on Monday after the second Sunday at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Claytor of Union, New Jersey are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens. Mr. Claytor is the brother of Mrs. Stevens.

Sister Annie Harvey expresses thanks to all friends and members for their visits and acts of kindness during her illness. She sends special thanks to the Ladies Club of Galilee.

Brother Leon Lawing and son were guest of relatives in Chesterfield County this past Sunday.

As we prepare for his return, let us continue in prayer for one another. May God be with you.

'The crying child'

Editor:

The crying child, breaking forth from its mother's womb, leaves an environment of warmth, protection, and security to be welcomed into a dark and cold world. Throughout the labor, even the child seems reluctant to enter the world, until finally forced to make delivery.

The Son of God, being separated from His Father, stepped down from a perfect, sinless environment to be born into a dark, black, and sin filled world. Knowing not sin Himself, He took upon a cloak of flesh and bore all the reproaches and iniquities of the world in His own body.

He came to deliver man from the bondage of sin, and man delivered Him up to be nailed to a cross. But not even death, nor the grave, could hold Him down, for He was, and is, the Son of God.

Just as sure as Christ's birth, death, burial, and resurrection have been fulfilled, the future prophecy of His return, will too, shortly come to pass. The time to prepare for the end is now. When Noah built the ark it wasn't raining, but the rains came, and in like manner, Jesus Christ will come again.

Bloodmobile short of goal

Editor:

Our regular visit of the Bloodmobile to Appomattox on April 26 again fell short of our goal. There were a total of 103 persons registered but with 6 deferrals colected a net of 97 units. Our goal was 110.

We had a total of nine first time donors for which we are very glad. They are Kevin R. Collins, Mack H. Wilson, Michelle C. Draine, Michael S. Fee, Freddie E. Napier, William T. Neathawk, Dorothy H. Anderson, Richard E. Franklin, and Richard D. Stratton. Here's hoping to see all of you on our next visit, June 27. Remember you can donate every eight weeks, (that is as often as the bloodmobile comes to Appomattox), up to five times a year.

The donor with the most units to his credit on this visit was William Albert Harvey. He received his 7-gallon pin. Next was Harry O. Guill, who received a 4-gallon pin. Two 3-gallon donors, Clara H. Elder and Richard D. Lawson. Two gallon pins were awarded James T. Ford, John Paul Taylor, Jr. and Clark Chenault. One gallon pins went to Betty R. Grimm and Kathy O. Womack. A very special thanks to each of you and it does prove that giving blood is a very rewarding experience. It also proves that the pain is not enough to stop people who want to help others.

Our hostess for the canteen was the Lady of Peace Catholic Church and they did a great job. They had a bountiful supply of homemade cookies and plenty of ladies to serve the donors as they came to the canteen. Others contributing to the canteen were Pepsi Cola Bottling, Foodworld, and Travelers Inn Motel.

There was a total of 48 volunteers who gave of their time to make this visit of the bloodmobile possible. Many thanks to each of you. Without you, there would be no bloodmobile.

I do hope that many more donors will come out on June 27 as blood is so urgently needed. There are many on our list who have not been for some time, so please try to make a special effort to come. You are needed.

Special thanks to the Times-Virginian for publicity. If you got the Times-Virginian, you had to know that the Bloodmobile was making a visit. Thanks also to WTTX radio.

Sincerely,
Alice C. Martin, Chm. Blood Services

MRS. CAROL BRADLEY recently shared her talent of pottery making with the fifth grade Think Tank Class. She demonstrated the steps to a finished product in her part time business of Virginia Redware. Students were given a chance to experiment with the clay and potters tools.

Arthritis month noted

Although arthritis is often thought of as a disease of old age, it actually occurs in every age group including infancy, according to the Arthritis Foundation.

Of the 31 million Americans with arthritis, over one-half are under 60. Three particularly serious forms -- rheumatoid, scleroderma, and lupus often begin before the age 40. Almost 250,000 children have arthritis.

Congress has declared May as Arthritis Month to concentrate public attention on the problems that accompany the disease.

For more information or to find out how you can help, contact the Central Virginia Branch of the Arthritis Foundation.

Mt. Pleasant

The Holiness Gospel Singers of Pamplin delivered a beautiful program of music at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church last Saturday night. We were few in number, but great in spirit.

Last Sunday the Rev. Napier and the Young Adult Choir were on the program at Triumph Baptist Church, to benefit the Pastor's Aid Club. Some of the church members also accompanied them. He delivered a great message which was well accepted.

The Rev. Edward and the Young Adult Choir will be at Chestnut Grove in Appomattox on Tuesday night. The Rev. Flood and the Gravel Hill Choir will be featured on Thursday night. On Sunday, the Rev. Napier will be at the St. Joy Church in Buckingham for Homecoming, along with his choir and congregation.

This is the week for Bible study sessions from 7 to 8 p.m. Bible School will begin on June 6.

Our prayers go out to our senior citizens in our community. May God bless them.
